Weekly Thoughts

My Friends, We had truly beautiful celebrations at St. Rose of Lima for Easter. It is always great to see so many people come to Easter Mass. Christmas and Easter are not only pinnacle feast days but also great opportunities to celebrate the gifts of life and relationship with our loved ones. As we conclude the Octave of Easter and continue our celebration of the Easter Season, I am so grateful and overjoyed at the dedication and service of all our ministries. Everyone did a phenomenal job in sharing their respective ministries. This is what makes this faith community so special. It is my joy to be your Pastor. This weekend the Church also celebrates Divine Mercy Sunday. Last year our Holy Father dedicated the whole year to Mercy. While in Poland I went to the convent of St. Faustina and to the Church of Divine Mercy. To see the crowds from throughout the world made me appreciate God's merciful love for each one of us. The message of Divine	Mercy is a reminder of the depth of love in the Heart of Jesus and the invitation for us to trust in His Merciful Love. I hope you will take time today to reflect on God's Mercy in your Life. Easter Blessings, Father Gerry P.S. Mark your calendars to share in the meetings surrounding the future of our Diocese regarding ...revitalization and the realignment project. Wednesday May 3 7:00-8:30 at the Cathedral OR Thursday May 4 12:30-2:00 PM at Our Lady of the Assumption Church - Come and bring your listening ears and your concerns. The Diocese wants your input!

Something to Think About

- 1) A strong relationship means choosing to love each other even in those moments when you struggle to like each other.
- 2) There are some people who could hear you speak a thousand words and still not understand you. And there are others who will understand without you even speaking a word.
- 3) Just because some people are fuelled by drama doesn't mean you have to attend the performance.
- 4) Moving on isn't about not loving someone anymore and forgetting them. It's about having the strength to say "I still love you but you're not worth this pain."
- 5) Your life will flow where your mind goes ... make sure it's a positive place.
- 6) They say Money talks. All mine does is wave goodbye!
- 7) Apologizing doesn't always mean you're wrong and the other person is right. It means you value your relationship more than your ego.

IN THE CHARITY OF YOUR PRAYERS, PLEASE REMEMBER: Stephen Green, Patrick O’Neil, Joseph Cormier, George Douglas, Brenda Desroches, Diane Quinlan, Mary Jean Cromwell, Evangeline Rogers, Raymond Wallace
