Weekly Thoughts

My Friends, First of all, Happy Father's Day to all our Dads, both living and deceased. We just celebrated Trinity Sunday last week, honoring God our Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit. We thank all Dads for their example, strength of character, and for their guidance in our lives. May the Lord continue to bless your Fatherly love of your spouse and children. This Sunday is Corpus Christi, a celebration dedicated to greater devotion to our Lord in the Holy Eucharist. The Eucharist is one of the seven Sacraments, the central form of our worship and it is Jesus' abiding presence among us in the Blessed Sacrament. I am always grateful for your devotion, piety at Mass, and your love of Jesus our Lord in the Eucharist. May His Divine Presence always be with us and may our love of the Eucharist be seen and embraced in our participation in Sunday Mass each week and daily Mass as often as	possible, as well as Eucharistic Adoration. The Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ allows us time to reflect on the beauty of the Holy Eucharist and the call to thanksgiving. The Greek word eucharistic Means the action of giving thanks. Every time we come to Mass, we are called to thank God, thank our fathers, thank our mothers, thank spouse and family and all who help us through life. Even in the midst of the challenges of life, there is always something for which to give thanks. As we gather with thankful hearts for the gift of fatherhood this weekend, we pray that the Lord always call us to live in thanksgiving and continue to grant the world great fathers who live, love and self-sacrifice. Yours in Christ Father Gerry

Something to Think About

- 1) Three A's of a happy relationship: Attention ... Affection ... Appreciation.
- 2) As we grow older we don't lose friends. We just learn who the real ones are.
- 3) You should appreciate what you "have," before it becomes what you "had."
- 4) Don't give other people the power to control your smile, your attitude or your confidence. You are good enough just the way you are.
- 5) Difficult roads often lead to beautiful destinations.
- 6) Don't keep allowing the same thing to upset you. Life's too short to live that way. Every day is a gift.
- 7) Honesty has a power that very few people can handle.
- 8) Life Tip: Hang out with people who make you forget to look at your phone.
- 9) Inside every older person is a younger one wondering what the "heck" happened.
- 10) No matter how talented, rich, or intelligent you are, how you treat animals tells me all I need to know about you.
